

Alex Maritzczak

Alex Maritzczak is an independent Consultant with NAVIX exit planning network.

As a Navix consultant, Alex brings 30 years of experience as a business advisor, executive and entrepreneur to help business owners realize their operational, financial and growth potential. Alex has facilitated over a dozen multi-year business transformations, integrations and ownership transitions where the emerging entities operated a more profitable and valuable business after transition.

Alex has varied industry and consulting experiences across multiple disciplines including business strategy, financial/operational planning and analytics, strategic project management, process improvement and re-engineering, customer experience strategy and design, and vendor relationship management. He has a breadth and depth of experience across various industries and sectors, including manufacturing, energy, transportation, retail, finance, insurance, and health & beauty.

As a business advisor, Alex has a passion for partnering with business leaders to develop and foster innovative, resilient and purpose-driven enterprises that create lasting value for their owners, employees and business partners.

Alex holds a BBA in Finance and Accounting from the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business and an MBA from Duke University's Fuqua School of Business.

When he isn't working, Alex spends his time with family and friends "making memories" any way he can.
