

Dave Beacon

Dave Beacon is an independent Consultant with NAVIX exit planning network.

As a Navix Consultant, Dave brings a wealth of knowledge with over 30 years of experience as both a small business owner and a corporate executive for several global companies. He has exited two tech companies he founded and has been on the M&A teams for two multi-billion dollar acquisitions. Dave also has experience as an executive leadership consultant helping to drive change through developing talent, refining strategy, process improvement and improving organizational culture.

Dave's three decades of experience spans multiple industries, and he has a deep data analytics background and credits this with much of his ongoing success - "...the data doesn't lie, you just have to know what questions to ask." Dave has degrees in Genetic Engineering and Applied Physics from the University of Colorado Boulder as well as certificates from Stanford University's Executive Leadership Program, and the Dale Carnegie Leadership Excellence Program.

Outside of work, he donates his time to Project Mindset as treasurer and a member of the board of directors. Project Mindset is a Veteran founded and operated 501c3 committed to providing consistent high-level support and resources for veterans, first Responders, and their families dealing with mental health challenges, especially those facing a suicide crisis.
