

Lane Michel

Lane Michel is an independent Consultant with the NAVIX exit planning network.

Lane is an experienced business coach and executive. For over three decades, he has guided business owners, leaders and employees to live their unique signature purpose.

As a NAVIX Exit Planning Strategist, Lane helps business owners plan for and achieve a happy exit that secures financial freedom, leaves a legacy of success for family, employees and customers, and prepares owners for life after exit. Having founded and transitioned companies he has built, as well as coached purpose-driven companies, Lane is uniquely qualified to guide owners in preparing for future sale, transfer of ownership or liquidation.

Lane believes that collaboration between employees, specialists and advisors who will help owners successfully exit is paramount; He is known for his ability to bring people together from multiple disciplines to rise above conflict and achieve results. Lane always brings heart to what is a complex, life-changing series of decisions.

Lane builds companies, organizations and inspired purpose-driven teams. He coaches people and organizations to live their core purpose. His career as executive, founder, board member, manager and management consultant have given Lane a broad international experience to draw upon. His family and home are in Northern California where he remains actively involved in private and public organizations caring for children and animals.

