

Bonnie Henry

Bonnie Henry is an independent Consultant with NAVIX exit planning network.

She is an accomplished CEO, senior executive, entrepreneur, and board member. As a NAVIX Exit Planning Strategist, Bonnie helps business owners develop and execute a strategy for a successful exit that secures financial freedom and provides continuity for family, employees, and clients. Bonnie's long history advising CEOs as a board member, consultant, coach, and investor makes her a valuable asset for companies seeking guidance on strategic choices and creative problem-solving. She is passionate about helping CEOs and entrepreneurs achieve success.

Over her nearly 40-year career, Bonnie has founded and exited from three business ventures. Through her consulting company, DKH Business Advisors she has advised companies on strategies for growth focusing on strategic choices, capital decisions, execution, and preparing for exit. She has held leadership roles in angel investment groups.

Bonnie holds an MBA from The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. She is active with Entrepreneurship Programs at Salem State University as a program advisor, CEO Group Leader, workshop presenter, and judge for the business plan competition. She similarly supports The Wharton School and judges its business plan competition.

Originally from the Midwest, Bonnie has lived for over 30 years in a late 18th century home in Salem, Massachusetts. She and her husband raised three children there and continue to support a wide range of nonprofit institutions to achieve their missions including their church, economic development, and historic preservation. Bonnie is a Trustee for Montserrat College of Art, a member of the Leadership Council for the Essex County Community Foundation and serves on the parish council for her church.
