

May Johnson

Communication Manager - Digital Media Content

May Johnson joined the NAVIX Consultants team in 2014. May manages the promotion and marketing of NAVIX Consultants services through web-education, and digital marketing so that interest and demand is created for the NAVIX Consultants services. She also manages the NAVIX sales CRM tools and the NAVIX online presence through social media. May has business experience in marketing, customer service, and sales effectiveness programs.

Prior to NAVIX Consultants, she held positions with a Fortune 100 company and other global organizations in the US and abroad. As a marketing consultant for a number of small to medium-sized companies, May successfully designed and managed the execution of marketing strategies for business growth. Fluent in four languages, May was educated in France and the UK, where she grew up. She has lived in Marietta since 1992 with her husband and two children. May held multiple volunteering positions in GHJA, local homeless shelters and participates in the annual Walk To End Alzheimer's in her father's name. She enjoys playing tennis with her friends and is an Atlanta Lawn Tennis Association (ALTA) member.
